The Daily Courant.

Tueſday, May 29. 1722.

Boſton, February 19.

To his Excellency Francis Nicholſon, Eſq; Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over this His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The humble Addreſs of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly in the Province of South-Carolina.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WITH the utmoſt Sincerity, we return your Excellency our moſt hearty Thanks for the Tender and Affectionate Speech you was pleaſed Yeſterday to make us; and we do beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency that nothing ſhall be wanting in us to further your good and gracious Intentions in ſettling the future Security and Tranquility of this Province, and making it happy and flouriſhing; and it is the greateſt of our Satisfaction that His Majeſty who always (like a Father of his People) conſiders the Circumſtances and Situation of his Subjects, has been ſo very good as to ſend ſo wiſe and experienced a Gentleman to govern us, which muſt certainly tend to the Terror of all the Enemies of this Province, and cannot fail of cultivating the beſt Underſtanding between your Excellency and this Houſe.

We can never be wanting in our Duty to God and His Majeſty, in providing and eſtabliſhing on the beſt Foundation, Religious Worſhip in our Mother Church, eſpecially when we have daily before our Eyes in your Excellency ſo ſhining an Example of Piety, and ſo worthy a Member thereof.

We acknowledge His moſt Gracious Majeſty's Goodneſs in ſending us His Forces to defend and protect our Frontiers, and we ſhall give them all the Aſſiſtance that is poſſible towards their extending His Majeſty's Dominions further to the Southward; and we ſhall particularly be careful of all the Frontiers of this His Majeſty's Province; and that we may have due Regard to what your Excellency recommends to us concerning the Fortifications, we ſhall appoint, as you deſire, a Committee of our Houſe, to join with ſome of His Majeſty's Council, to conſider of the beſt Methods to be taken for that Purpoſe.

The View your Excellency has towards the Incouragement of the Trade of this Province meets with the ſincereſt Returns of Gratitude from this Houſe, we being perfectly perſwaded that the future Proſperity and Well-being thereof in a great Meaſure depends thereon, and we ſhall take the moſt effectual Means to ſecure and increaſe it; but particularly the Trade with the Indians, the Abuſes in which, we have too fatally experienced, have once thrown this late ſinking Colony into Blood and Deſolation; we thank your Excellency for the wiſe Steps you have taken already with the Indians, and beg of you to continue your good Offices on that Head.

The Incroachment of the French and Spaniards amongſt our Indians has (with Reaſon) for many Years paſt alarmed us, and induced us to make ſeveral Complaints of it in Great-Britain; but ſuch has been the Misfortune of this Province, that all our Complaints, though of the utmoſt Conſequence to this Colony, have never had any Effect, till we regulated our Applications by making them immediately to His Majeſty, which, we thank God, have produced your Excellency's Government over us, who can beſt put thoſe Misfortunes in a true Light to His Majeſty, and prevail on His Majeſty to prevent the Dangers threatned His Dominions on the Continent of America; on our Parts we aſſure your Excellency we ſhall do all that can be done, by a feeble Colony juſt gathering Strength and Vigour.

We ſhall have the greateſt Regard to ſuch of His Majeſty's Inſtructions as your Excellency ſhall be pleaſed to lay before us, and doubt not but that they are calculated for our Good and Preſervation, and they will accordingly be received and obſerved with the profoundeſt Duty and Gratitude by His loyal Subjects in South Carolina.

We ſhall not be leſs forward than any of our neighbouring Colonies, in Propoſtion to our Abilities, and the Infancy of this Colony, in making Proviſion for the contingent Charges of the Government, agreeable to what His Majeſty juſtly expects from us.

According to your Excellency's Deſire (which we highly approve of) we ſhall appoint a Committee of our Houſe to confer with a Committee of His Majeſty's Council for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs, and the better cultivating and preſerving a good Correſpondence between both Houſes, which muſt be of the utmoſt Advantage to the Intereſt of His Majeſty, and his Subjects in this Province; as we are deſirous that in all our Tranſactions the Honour and Glory of Almighty GOD may be firſt thought of and promoted, well knowing that it is the ſureſt Way to expect a Bleſſing on our Endeavours, ſo we aſſure your Excellency, we ſhall with the greateſt Sincerity join with your Excellency in a Day of Faſting and Humiliation.

We heartily wiſh your Excellency a full and perfect Enjoyment of your Health amongſt us, and that you may long continue to govern a People intirely Loyal to His Majeſty, and firmly attached to your Excellency and your wiſe Adminiſtration, and that when his Divine Majeſty ſhall think fit to call you from us, you may receive the juſt Reward of all your Labours, your generous and good Actions, an Immortal Crown of Glory in Heaven.

Preſented in Council, Ja. Moore, Secr.

Francfort, May 23. 'The French continue filling their Magazines in Alſace, and other Places, 'with all kinds of warlike Stores, and are likewiſe remounting their Cavalry; the neighbouring 'Princes take Umbrage at theſe Proceedings, and 'keep themſelves upon their Guard. Count Staremberg arrived here the 21ſt Inſtant; he deſigns 'to proceed from hence to Embs, from thence to 'Holland, and afterwards to Great Britain. The 'Deputies of the Circles of the Upper Rhine continue their Conferences, and are like to do ſo 'ſome Time longer, being to regulate the Military 'Eſtabliſhments, and to put them on a good Foot.

Copenhagen, May 26. 'All the King's Council 'came back hither To-Day from Frederickſbourg, 'and immediately diſpatched an Expreſs to the 'Secretary of the Embaſſy at Stockholm. The 'Ruſſian Reſident here has put off his Departure, 'has hired an Houſe, and gives out that he has 'received Orders from his Court to continue here 'ſome time longer. M. Weſtphalen, our Envoy 'at Peterſbourg, writes word, that the Ruſſian 'Ships cannot poſſibly ſail from their Harbours be'cauſe of the Ice which yet floats in thoſe narrow 'Seas; ſo that the late Report of ſome Muſcovite 'Men of War being at Bornholm was wholly 'Groundleſs. In the mean time, the Frigate, and 'the Advice-Yacht that were lately ſent thither, 'are ordered to cruize thereabouts continually, in 'order to bring Advice the Inſtant they deſcry the

'Ruſſian

Ruſſian Ships in thoſe Seas. Judges are appointed to try the Count de Rantzaw. Advices from Ploen ſay, the Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein-Ploen is brought to Bed of a Daughter, who died ſoon afterwards, having received Baptiſm; and that the Dutcheſs herſelf is at the Point of Death. The Duke de Retwiſch waits only that Period to take Poſſeſſion of the Dutchy of Ploen.

Hamburg, May 29. Advices from Stockholm ſay, that Major-General Swerin having frequently given Occaſion to warm Diſputes in the Houſe of the Imperial Miniſter Count Freytag, and in a Manner very diſagreeable to the Count, who ſeveral Times deſired the other to reſtrain his Conduct in that Particular, but has ſince continued it, notwithſtanding thoſe Exhortations, the Count has therefore complained of this Matter to the King, and not having received ſuch Satisfaction as he expected, 'tis ſaid his Majeſty and alſo the Count have cauſed Expreſſes to be diſpatched to Vienna concerning this Affair. 'Tis likewiſe ſaid, that this Miniſter will ſhortly quit the Swediſh Court, to reſide at that of Denmark.
